TRIBUTE: Damon Albarn at the house where he grew up in, now adorned with his own Blue Plaque

Plaque life

POP star Damon Albarn has been honoured with a Blue Plaque on his childhood home, 21 Fillebrook Road, Leytonstone.

The award, paid for by Waltham Forest Council, coincides with Albarn's recent work the Mercury-nominated album Everyday Robots, reflecting on his early life in the borough with mentions of beauty spots such as Hollow Ponds.

Though his family moved to a village near Colchester when he was nine years old, the community of Leytonstone had a lasting impact on him.

"Its multi-racial population had a very profound effect on me," he said.

Ombudsman reports on hospital failings leading to woman's death

£3,500 FOR OAP'S LIFE!

By Suzi Muston

havering@yellowad.co.uk

THE daughter of a woman who died after being diagnosed with gastroenteritis has received £3,500 compensation from a hospital trust.

A Parliamentary ombudsman's health panel heard Barking Havering and Redbridge Hospitals NHS Trust did not provide adequate care and treatment for the patient after the pensioner was admitted to hospital with diarrhoea and vomiting.

Her daughter complained that the trust did not keep adequate records of her mother's care, communicate appropriately with the family or handle her complaint properly.

The health panel heard that the pensioner was admitted to hospital with diarrhoea and vomiting, which doctors diagnosed as gastroenteritis.

The elderly woman's condition deteriorated significantly five days after admission.

Surgeons examined her and suggested that she might have a bowel obstruction.

The panel heard by that time it was too late to do a scan or operate.

She died shortly afterwards.

The health panel said given that the woman's condition was not improving, doctors should have carried out further tests to assess her kidney function and to see whether she had any other signs of infection.

But no tests were done.

A spokesman for the ombudsman said: "We also found there was a lack of input from senior doctors during her time in hospital.

"Although nurses appropriately monitored her physiological observations, and increased observations when necessary, they failed to keep adequate records of her care, particularly her fluid input and output.

"The nurses also did not adequately communicate with the patient's family. We could not say, however, her death could have been prevented."

The trust agreed to write to the patient's daughter to acknowledge the failings and apologise for the injustice caused, pay £3,500 compensation and provide an update on the action plan it had developed to address the failings identified.

The Parliamentary ombudsman heard the case in May and published the results on Thursday.

Hospital trust pays out £500

BARKING, Havering and Redbridge Hospitals Trust has paid £500 compensation to a woman for not receiving appropriate care.

A patient was admitted with an existing wound to her leg.

The woman's daughter complained to the trust, that by the time her mother was discharged, she had a pressure sore ulcer and a further injury to her left leg caused by a hot drink.

The Parliamentary Ombudsman said when the patient arrived at hospital she was assessed as having one existing injury on her thigh and a red sacrum.

Six hours later staff recorded that the pressure areas had been checked and were intact.

The Parliamentary Ombudsman health panel said the records did not tally with the patient's first assessment.

Four hours later, staff recorded the details of the patient's wounds.

At this time, staff noted an additional wound.

The health panel said either the patient was not thoroughly assessed when she was first admitted, or she suffered a further leg injury.

This had not been accepted or explained to the patient by the trust.

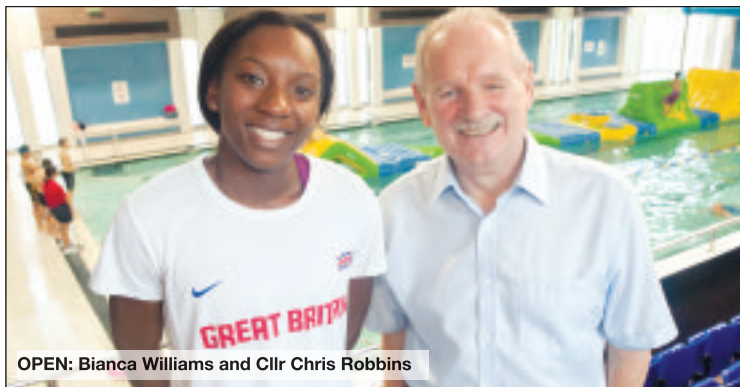

The panel said there was no wound care chart or care plan in her records.

The health panel said that, despite the patient having a red sacrum, there was no record of this. There was also no evidence to show she received the appropriate pressure care.

The trust apologised to the patient for the faults the Ombudsman found and paid her £500 in recognition of the pain and distress she has experienced.

It also produced plans to prevent the same failings happening again.

The health panel recorded the findings in May 2014. The report was published on Thursday.

Centre gets a new look

LEYTONSTONE Leisure Centre has reopened after a multi-million pound makeover. Visitors will benefit from a refurbished swimming pool, teaching pool and poolside sauna.

The development is the latest stage of Waltham Forest Council's £24.5million programme of improvements across the borough's six leisure centres by 2016.

Council leader Chris Robbins and the borough's cabinet member for health, councillor Ahsan Khan, were joined by representatives from Better, which runs the council's gyms, and sprint sensation Bianca Williams, who won bronze for England in the 200m earlier this year at the 2014 Commonwealth Games, at the relaunch event on Tuesday.

Cllr Robbins said: "Our multi-million pound leisure centre improvement programme - part of our 'creating a better place' campaign - is ensuring that residents have the best facilities available.

"The new centre in Leytonstone has been completely transformed and now offers a host of fantastic features for local families and residents of all ages to enjoy."

In addition to the new pool area, the centre - formally known as Cathall Leisure Centre - now boasts a new reception with fast track entry, two-court sports hall, 100-station fitness suite, a soft play area, multi-purpose room, a refurbished studio and brand new changing areas for all activities.

The centre opened its doors to the public last week, ahead of the official relaunch.

More than 150 new members have signed up to take advantage of the new facilities.

Cllr Khan, said: "We're making sure that all residents have access to first-class leisure facilities to help them stay fit and healthy.

"Whether it's free swimming for under 18s, over 60s and disabled people, state-of-the-art gym equipment and exercise spaces or soft play areas for youngsters, we want everyone to have opportunities to get active whatever their age or ability."

Leytonstone Leisure Centre, in Cathall Road, closed on 3 November 2013 for improvement work. Since then, the building has been extended, while the internal areas have been remodelled and refurbished with new equipment.

Waltham Forest's leisure centres offer sports pitches and courts, fully-equipped gymnasiums, exercise classes and 25m swimming pools. Those with pools offer free swimming for under 18s, over 60s and disabled people.

Young chef 'chuffed' to win national award

A TALENTED young chef has won a prestigious national competition.

April Partridge, 21, from Chingford, was named the Observer Food Monthly's Best Young Chef after impressing judges.

Her career in the food industry started when she was 16 following a two-week work placement at private members' club, The Reform Club, Pall Mall, in central London.

The Heathcote School pupil was then entered into a national competition by food teacher, Carole Gabriel, and she won the London heat to spend a day at The Ivy in London's West End.

But a day's shift turned into a month of shifts before April was offered a full-time placement and subsequent promotions.

She said: "I am completely chuffed to bits. It is humbling that all my hard work has been recognised by the people who inspire me as a cook - it's a dream come true."

"When I was looking for my work experience placements, all the other students were looking for office jobs. Office work is a big no for me and I wanted to push myself. Little did I know I'd be where I am today."

April now runs the sauce section at the establishment and is chef de partie.

TEACH: Carol Gabriel, cookery teacher, at Heathcote School, taught April Partridge

Judges heard how one August bank holiday she arrived at work at 5am to prepare purees, stocks and sauces - leaving home at 4am. At 3pm she checked the rota to see she was booked to work the evening shift too, and she arrived home at 3am the following day.

The keen guitarist also studied at Chase Lane School. Her mother is a catering manager and her stepfather, Nigel Stokes, is a head chef. Nigel along with chefs, Jamie Oliver, Daniel Clifford and Tom Kerridge, are her cooking idols.

Describing life in the kitchen, April, added: "You watch the shows and it all looks very intense and believe me it is."

"I work in a classy restaurant with high expectations. We deal with the pressure with passion for food and perfection. All the chefs I work with love the job."

"Hopefully, one day, I will run my own restaurant or even find myself on television."

April is not the first chef to win a prestigious cooking contest. Natalie Coleman, 29, of Westward Road, Chingford, won BBC MasterChef in 2013.

Hospital on board for life-saving campaign

THE chairman of a hospital trust who almost died following surgery is spearheading a campaign to save lives.

Maureen Dalzeil, of Barking, Havering and Redbridge Hospitals NHS Trust (BHRUT), was treated in a London hospital for colon cancer 10 years ago.

She developed sepsis following the surgery. Maureen said: "Developing sepsis after surgery is quite common as there is only so much the human body can take. It is not as a result of any mistakes made by surgical staff."

She said that when she developed the condition she had slurred speech and was "talking nonsense".

These are just some of the symptoms Maureen is teaching medical staff at BHRUT to look out for. She added: "Other symptoms include shivering, breathlessness and discolouration of the skin."

"Ten years ago we didn't really have the tools or knowledge about sepsis that we have now, and it was known as the silent killer. It was touch and go that I would live, that's why I am spearheading this campaign."

So far 3,000 staff have been trained to look out for the symptoms and treat the condition.

● Sepsis is a common and potentially life-threatening condition triggered by an infection.

Maureen Dalzeil

● In sepsis, the body's immune system goes into overdrive, setting off a series of reactions including widespread inflammation, swelling and blood clotting.

This can lead to a significant decrease in blood pressure, which can mean the blood supply to vital organs such as the brain, heart and kidneys is reduced.

● If not treated quickly, sepsis can eventually lead to multiple organ failure and death.

● Each year in the UK, it is estimated that more than 100,000 people are admitted to hospital with sepsis and about 37,000 people will die as a result.

● Early symptoms of sepsis usually develop quickly and can include a high temperature (fever), chills and shivering, a fast heartbeat and fast breathing.

● In some cases, symptoms of more severe sepsis or septic shock (when your blood pressure drops to a dangerously low level) develop soon after.

This can include feeling dizzy or faint, confusion or disorientation, nausea and vomiting, diarrhoea, feeling cold, clammy, and pale or mottled skin.

● The NHS say tell your doctor if you have recently had an infection or injury and if you have possible early signs of sepsis. Severe sepsis and septic shock are medical emergencies.

● If you think that you or someone in your care has one of these conditions, call 999 and ask for an ambulance.

● Anyone can develop sepsis after an injury or minor infection, although some people are more vulnerable.

● If sepsis is detected early and has not yet affected vital organs, it may be possible to treat the infection at home with antibiotics.

A spokesman for the NHS said: "Most people who have sepsis detected at this stage will make a full recovery."

Visit country park with a trip down memory lane

WITH Remembrance day approaching and while commemorating the centenary of World War I, there isn't a more appropriate time to rediscover the borough's heritage with a trip to Hornchurch Country Park, which is awash with rich history and rare artefacts from the wars.

Among the relics that have been found over the years are 303 bullets and cartridges, which were the standard British and Commonwealth military cartridges from 1889 until the 1950s, spiffire goggles, dog food tins that were enjoyed by the pilot's dogs, RAF egg cups, and a copper-headed hammer.

Also part of the collection is the last surviving three-bladed propeller of its kind from the Battle of Britain Spitfire, which crashed at Lower Raypits in Canewdon after a serious glycol gas leak in 1940.

There is a 1930s bike that would have been used by pilots to get around the airfield, and also the engine of a MK1 Hawker Hurricane aircraft.

Many of these were found when parts of the grounds were excavated during the filming of a documentary called Two Men in a Trench in March 2002.

Mick Greenslade, a Havering Council park ranger said: "It's amazing to see what's still out and about here."

"A while ago, we were putting in a speed ramp on Squadrons Approach and we were digging to put in a 'caution' sign when I hit a 1874 German pfennig coin!"

The series explored the fascinating former airfield and many of the items were found around the existing tect turrets.

The items were sent to Glasgow University to be analysed and logged before being sent back to the council.

Fellow ranger John Wilderspin who has worked for 28 years in the park said: "It's important that they're kept here, They're part of our history, you can see and feel them, and every little thing has a tale of its own."

"We're very lucky; we get to do lots of different things, not just cutting grass. It's an interesting job, that's why we do it."

During the Second World War, pillboxes and defensive structures were created and a perimeter track was built around RAF Hornchurch, with dispersal bays, pill boxes and tect turrets, connected by anti-tank obstacles, trenches and barbed wire.

Councillor Melvin Wallace, cabinet member for culture and community engagement, said: "Every part of the country park reveals another important piece of history. There's so much to learn – some parts of the land, particularly the marshes, were bombed on numerous occasions, and the existing car park is where pilots parked their Spitfires during the Second World War. I'd encourage everyone, especially those who are local, to go and explore what is an important part of our heritage."

The council's park rangers offer guided talks and tours about the history of the park and the wildlife. For more information, call 01708 554451.

Tribute to late colleague

A MEMORIAL bench in tribute to a former colleague has been installed at King George Hospital, Goodmayes.

Chief pharmacy technician Lauren Goldberg, who worked in the pharmacy team for more than 10 years, was 50 when she died of breast cancer in October 2012.

The new picnic bench was unveiled at a special ceremony with the pharmacy team, trust chief executive Matthew Hopkins, and Lauren's family, including her son Janson and her mum and dad, Sylvia and Cyril Simmons.

The pharmacy team were all dressed in purple to mark her favourite colour.

The bench, which has been placed outside the pharmacy office, will be used by staff and patients.

Janson said: "This was a really proud moment to know that all of the people that worked with her over the years have remembered her.

"It has been lovely to come back to the hospital and see so many familiar faces."

THE ROYAL British Legion will hold its annual poppy dance on Saturday, November 15.

The event, to raise money for the Poppy Appeal, is at the RBL, Hall Lane, Chingford.

Organiser Sharon Bonner said: "We hold the dance every year to raise money for charity. The tickets include a fish or chicken supper for everyone who comes. We will have live music by a singer called George James, who sings all sorts. We're calling it the red, white and blue night. People can come along dressed in those colours if they want to but they can wear whatever they want."

The event begins at 7.30pm and runs until 11.15pm. Tickets cost £7 and are available from Sharon on 020 8524 8373.

Sharon added: "We have about 120 spaces. Anyone who wants tickets should give me a call as soon as possible."

Have your say

on the proposal for a new tunnel under the Thames at Silvertown

We'd like your opinion on a new tunnel at Silvertown, which is part of a package of proposed river crossings. The new tunnel will:

- Provide a new road crossing across the Thames
- Reduce queuing at the Blackwall Tunnel
- Support the creation of new jobs and homes
- Create the opportunity for new public transport connections

We'd also like your views on a proposed range of charging options for the Blackwall and Silvertown Tunnels. Charging would be implemented from the early 2020s once the Silvertown Tunnel construction is complete to help manage demand and fund the new tunnel.

To find out more please visit tfl.gov.uk/silvertown-tunnel or call 0343 222 1234*

Church to lead service for fallen troops

A CHURCH is leading a remembrance service for fallen troops.

St Edmund's Church, in Larkshall Road, Chingford, is holding the Act of Remembrance at Memorial Park, in Chingford Mount Road, on Saturday, from 11am.

The service will be followed by readings in the church.

The church also plans to plant 40 poppies on the green outside on Remembrance Sunday.

Reverend Lesley Goldsmith said: "We are trying to do something on the day similar to a poppy field where people can make their own poppies."

HAPPY: Rita and Steve Salisbury

Life's grand for builder as he scoops hospice lottery prize

A BUILDER from South Hornchurch and his family will have a happy Christmas, thanks to a hospice.

Three years ago Steve Salisbury and his wife Rita signed up to play the Saint Francis Hospice weekly lottery and are celebrating after scooping the first prize of £1,000 in one of the draws.

Steve, 58, said: "We supported the hospice because life-limiting illness has touched our family and for years if there was ever anything we didn't want at home anymore, we donated it to one of the Saint Francis Hospice shops in Hornchurch. It's come at just the right time as I've been putting quite a lot into the new business, so this win will take care of Christmas and means we can treat all the family."

Rita said: "We've never won anything until now."

David Holmes, from the hospice said: "There is a £18,000 rollover prize that can also be won in the draw to be made on November 7."

Kids can create their dream car

By Mike Torpey

TOYOTA is once again inviting youngsters to let their imagination run free in its ninth Dream Car Art Contest.

The Japanese brand believes that in the minds of children, there are no limits to what the ideal car of the future might be.

And entries are open now for the UK round of the global competition which produces a mixture of colourful creativity and ground-breaking ideas.

Ideas like edible chocolate seats, engines that run on recycled rubbish and machines that can fly and sail, as well as run on ordinary roads have all been put forward in previous years.

As Toyota recognises that today's children are the car drivers – and the vehicle designers and engineers – of the future it sees the contest as a way of encouraging young people to think about the role the car can play in their life, and in society in general.

All children need do to take part is to draw or paint their dream car, complete with a cool background to show what it would look like on the road.

The artwork should be accompanied with a short explanation of how the car works, and what makes it the best in the world.

Submissions must be hand-drawn or painted, not produced on a computer and paper must be either A3 or A4 size.

There are three age categories: under-eight, eight to 11 and 12 to 15, and entrants must live in the UK.

Prizes of an iPad are on offer for the winners of each category, as well as qualification for the worldwide competition in which finalists will have the chance to take a trip to the global prize ceremony in Japan next year.

Entry forms can be downloaded with more information – including previous winning designs and full competition terms and conditions – at the Dream Car Art Contest page at www.toyota.co.uk/dream-car.

The closing date for entries is January 5, 2015.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
  - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
  - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
  - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
  - (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
  - (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. ## CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

HAMMERS TURN ON STYLE WITH LATE RECOVERY

West Ham United

Barclays Premier League
Stoke City 2-2 West Ham United
Brian Jeeves reporting from the Britannia Stadium

SPIRITED West Ham recovered from two goals behind to gain what had earlier seemed an unlikely point at Stoke City.

The Britannia Stadium is widely recognised as a difficult place to plunder Premier League points. Nevertheless, West Ham arrived in the Potteries in good shape after dispatching champions Manchester City at Upton Park seven days before.

Meanwhile, the Potters were mindful that a victory could catapult them into the top half of the table, within two points of the high-flying East Londoners.

Indeed it was lively Stoke who were first to threaten. Hammers defender Winston Reid had to be alert after Jonathan Walters had surged down the right and centred, soon after Reid had to be on his toes again, this time thwarting Steven Nzonzi's low drive.

Stoke were looking the more likely to break the deadlock. Former Barcelona man Bojan's effort was snubbed out by some brave defending from James Collins after another lightning raid down the right.

And Stoke should have grabbed the lead when Mame Diouf was only inches away from converting Bojan's cross.

Stewart Downing should have done better, sending his effort high and wide after a neat interchange with Alex Song during a rare foray forward from the visitors during the first period.

But just after the half hour mark a goal duly arrived, and it was no surprise that the home side provided it. Victor Moses was quickest to react following a melee in the Hammers box and scrambled the ball over the line.

And as the half drew to a close it was the home side who continued to look the brighter. Moses surging run was brought to a conclusion by some desperate last ditch defending from Collins, while Bojan was only inches away with Hammers keeper Adrian fully extended.

West Ham were on the ropes, once again they had Spanish keeper Adrian to thank as he made a brilliant point blank stop as Moses looked set to double the Potters advantage.

Hammers boss Sam Allardyce brought Carlton Cole into the fray for the second period in an attempt to bolster the visitors attack, but it was Stoke who were first to show. The electrifying Bojan once again a thorn in West Ham's side, finding Adrian's midriff with a free-kick from distance.

And before the East Londoners could make any real headway their problems doubled. Jonathan Walters showed Aaron Cresswell a clean pair of heels before delivering for Mame Diouf to head beyond Adrian.

But West Ham weren't going down without a fight, and they clawed their way back into the match, albeit in controversial circumstances. Song was high and late on Diouf but referee Chris Foy allowed play to continue, much to the anguish of all connected with the Potteries club. Downing raced away down the right, crossing for the headlong Valencia who beat Begovic and halved the home sides' advantage.

The game continued to ebb and flow. Nzonzi had Adrian at full stretch and Diouf headed just over as Stoke went in search of a decisive goal.

But the tide had begun to turn, West Ham had started to attack with greater intent, and with twenty minutes remaining, Downing crisply met a pinpoint ball in from Valencia to restore parity.

Man of the match Bojan tried to lift Stoke's spirits with a shot that warmed Adrian's fingers, then the Hammers keeper made an even better save low to his right to keep out Geoff Cameron.

In the burning embers the Potters pressed hard to claim maximum points, but West Ham showed the kind of resolve that had earlier been missing to claim a share of the spoils and extend their unbeaten run to four games.

After the dust had settled, Sam Allardyce said: "I have to give Stoke credit for the way that they played."

"For me, at 2-0 it was about changing the shape of the team, getting the substitutes on that were going to give us an opportunity to get back in the game."

Allardyce continued: "The two goals we scored were fantastic goals, I don't think there's any doubt about that. The extra quality we've got this year has paid dividends. It looked like we were getting nothing out of this game but we've got a precious point."

Potters boss Mark Hughes said: "I thought we were excellent from start to finish. That was one of our most dynamic and creative performances this season."

West Ham are next in Barclays Premier League action on Saturday when Aston Villa visit Upton Park.

O's denied all three points in stoppage time

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 2 Coventry City 2
By Rowland Lyons
at the Matchroom Stadium

MAURO Milanese's Orient had to be content with a point last Saturday after a Jim O'Brien stoppage time leveller means that the east Londoners are now an unenviable six months without a home win.

It looked bleak for the O's after O'Brien had given the Sky Blues a deserved first-half lead. But, the O's overturned the form book with strikes from Scott Cuthbert and Jay Simpson after the interval.

With the league's worse home record by a country mile, the warning signs had been ominous before O'Brien's opener when Mathieu Baudry denied Gary Madine with a goal-saving challenge, before Scott

Cuthbert survived a stone-wall penalty appeal after appearing to fell a clean through Frank Nouble.

City finally got the goal their enterprise merited on 35 minutes when sloppiness from a Nathan Clarke slip allowed Madine time to square for O'Brien, whose side-footer nestled in the top corner of the stranded Gary Woods's goal.

Apart from a Dean Cox drive that flew wide, the visitors looked comfortable keeping possession, until the O's got their lucky break nine minutes into the second period when Cuthbert rose highest and converted via the woodwork. Jordan Willis did attempt to clear, but the ball had clearly crossed and the linesman signalled for a goal.

The O's were – as it later proved only temporarily in dreamland – when the in-form Simpson flung himself at Mathieu Baudry's cross from Clarke's fine set-piece to give his side the lead – arguably against the run of play – with 20 minutes remaining.

Not unused to holding onto a lead, given their excellent away form, the game had been turned on its head in favour of the O's, who never looked in danger, but a catastrophic error from Woods – fumbling out Danny Haynes's 91st minute cross straight into O'Brien's path – saw the visitors nick what seemed to be a most unlikely point.

Milanese said: "I feel sorry for the lads – they had done everything. Despite it being our third game in a week, they didn't stop trying."

Full-back Elliott Omozusi revealed: "The lads worked their socks off. That little bit of luck we need is going against us at the moment – all we can do is keep working."

"But we've got a great group and the character to come through any bad situation. The message from the manager at half-time was to keep going – get a goal – and that's what we did. But just in the last few minutes we shot ourselves in the foot."

City boss Steven Pressley admitted: "I am disappointed, as I thought we had enough chances to win the game – but it shows the sign of a good team when you continue to press for the equalizer – it was the least we deserved."

Leyton Orient: Gary Woods, Scott Cuthbert, Mathieu Baudry, Nathan Clarke (captain), Elliot Omozusi, Jobi McAnuff, Josh Wright (Bradley Pritchard 77), Marvin Bartley, Dean Cox, Jay Simpson, Glanville Plasmatti (Shaun Batt 78).

Attendance: 5,464

Non-league round-up

Rovers have six appeal

by Brian Jeeves

RYMAN League One North outfit Great Woking Rovers were in great goalscoring form at the weekend, thrashing Redbridge 6-2 at Burroughs Park.

Nick Skelton (2), Tom Ranger (2), Billy Johnson and Billy Radley were on target for the villagers with Bostry Bansende and Patrick Damali replying for sorry Redbridge. This victory eased relegation worries for Dan Trenkel's men by lifting them into 16th place in the table.

But it wasn't such good news for Tilbury. Ryan Flack grabbed a late goal for the Dockers at Cheshunt, but it served only as a consolation as the home side ran out 2-1 winners. And it was even worst for rock bottom Burnham Ramblers who crashed 5-0 at Needham Market.

In the Vanarama Conference Premier Division, Braintree Town earned a point from a goalless draw with high-flying Woking at Cressing Road, while in the South Division goals from Stephen Cawley and Sam Collins gave Concord Rangers the points against Weston-super-Mare. Elsewhere Chelmsford City won by the odd goal in three at Basingstoke Town. A goal in each half from Southend United loanee Jason Williams and former Shrimper Lee Sawyer clinching the points for the Clarets.

Many of the region's teams were on FA Trophy First Qualifying Round duty. Michael Malcolm and Billy Coyne found the net as AFC Hornchurch saw off Harrow Borough 2-0 at Bridge Avenue, while a brace from Calvin Poku and a Dion Polius strike helped Barkingside to a 3-1 win over Kingstonian.

Grays Athletic impressively beat Hampton & Richmond Borough by three goals to nil, while several of our teams will try again after their ties ended all square.

Stanley Sherwin was Brentwood Town's goal man in a 1-1 draw with Biggleswade Town, and it was the same outcome at the Prospects Stadium where Joseph Carter was Canvey Island's marksman against Leatherhead. Hungerford Town and East Thurrock United was also 1-1, but it was the end of the Wembley trail for Thurrock, who lost 3-2 at Folkestone Invicta and Billericay Town who went down to Ryan Jones only goal at Metropolitan Police.

The pick of the action from the Essex Senior League saw FC Romania win 5-0 at the Old Spotted Dog against Clapton while there were derby wins for Basildon United, 2-0 against Hullbridge Sports, and Ilford, 2-1 at Barking.

Help for heroes

GREAT Woking Rovers are urging fans to turn out in force for a special game in aid of the nation's injured servicemen and women.

To back forces charity Help for Heroes, Rovers have announced that all fans will be admitted free to their Ryman North clash against Needham Market on Saturday November 22, kick-off 3pm.

Supporters will be asked to make a donation at the turnstiles or during the game with volunteers organising a bucket collection around the ground.

Forward-thinking Rovers chairman Tony Butcher said: "To help our injured servicemen and women we will be hosting an afternoon of entertainment and fundraising for Help for Heroes and we are asking fans to show their support by turning out in
